FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT (FLSA)

This workshop will present and discuss the most recent developments regarding the FLSA; the discussion will include recent Department of Labor rulings, relevant case law, and the State's efforts to reflect evolving FLSA requirements in its work practices.

FILM FESTIVAL

1. "Final Offer" - The Canadian United Auto Workers and General Motors (Canada) allowed a filmmaker to film their 1984 negotiations which resulted in a strike prior to settlement and ultimately led the Canadian UAW to split away from the union. This has been shown on public television and provides an excellent perspective on the dynamics of bargaining within the union including internal union politics, "end-runs", both on the union and General Motors. NO ACTORS ARE USED. THE CHARACTERS IN THIS FILM ARE REAL -- FILMED DURING NEGOTIATIONS - AND, AS SUCH, THERE IS CONSIDERABLE PROFANE LANGUAGE USED.

2. Other films will be presented from the labor relations area. Their titles will be announced at a later date.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

This workshop will cover informative topics such as moving from a reactive to a proactive safety program; developing management support for a safety program; Safety Incentive Award programs and are they effective; working with, not against, employee organizations; Training and professionalizing safety staff; Health Maintenance strategies that do not cost; and, hopefully, a new Safety classification series.

INTERNAL INVESTIGATIONS

This course will emphasize sound approaches to investigating allegations of employee misconduct, be they from citizen complaints, supervisor concerns, or involve allegations of racial/sexual harassment. The course will suggest steps to consider when conducting any internal investigation, while preserving employee rights and fulfilling management obligations.

LAYOFF/SROA

This workshop will provide line departments with an overview of the layoff and SROA process; it will focus on the responsibilities of departmental personnel officers and the roles of Department of Personnel Administration and State Personnel Board.

LEGAL UPDATE

This workshop will provide participants with a summary of the significant arbitration, Public Employment Relations Board (PERB), and court decisions affecting State government in such areas as bargaining over mid-contract changes, the right to representation, reprisal, classification and compensation, and select Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) matters.

MEDICAL ACTION/FITNESS FOR DUTY

The Fitness for Duty group will deal with practical approaches to obtaining medical evaluations useful to the employer in assessing an employee’s job performance, abilities, and limitations. Practical applications will be discussed.

PREPARING FOR ARBITRATION

This workshop will discuss the "how to's" of preparing to arbitrate a grievance. It will include what the department needs to do to prepare for the arbitration process, the roles of the Department of Personnel Administration's Labor Relations and Legal Offices, and what you can/cannot expect from arbitrators.

PREPARING ORIENTATIONS FOR NEW EXEMPT EMPLOYEES

This workshop is designed to provide personnel offices staff with an outline and the accompanying materials currently available to provide new Directors and exempt employees with an orientation to the State of California Personnel Management System and the general benefits available for exempt employees.

PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICERS' PROCEDURAL BILL OF RIGHTS (POBR)

This workshop is designed to assist participants in understanding the Public Safety Officers' Procedural Bill of Rights and its application before, during, and after the internal investigations.
Do you want to develop resource material for your department? Do you have limited resources and wonder if someone else has already developed something? Wonder how you can find out? Come to the Resource Table and take a look! Departments have been asked to provide copies of materials you might find useful. This could make your life much simpler! Can you afford not to take a look?

RIGHT TO REPRESENTATION
This workshop pertains to an employee's right to representation in a variety of areas such as grievances, counseling sessions, arbitrations, and adverse actions. Discussions will include rights afforded through the Memoranda of Understanding, court cases, and the Dills Act as well as common situations where representation rights may or may not arise and suggestions on how to deal with these situations.

ROUND TABLE DISCUSSIONS
Have you ever wondered how other departments do things or have handled a particular personnel or labor relations issue or problem? This workshop is intended to allow staff members of the smaller departments who wear multiple-hats in the personnel/labor relations areas to talk to other similarly situated persons. Find out how they do things, have handled problems, etc. Come and network!

SICK LEAVE ADMINISTRATION
Need some help in answering supervisor's questions relating to the administration of sick leave? This workshop provides current information on the intent of the contract sick leave provisions, including changes made in 1991/92 negotiations; offers advice on medical verification including when to request it, how much information is necessary, etc.; and offers alternatives for dealing with chronically ill employees. The revised Sick Leave Administration Guidelines for Supervisors will be provided.

STATUTORY APPEALS
This workshop provides detailed information on the various statutory appeals, which are heard by Department of Personnel Administration, including AWOL, resignation, and layoff hearings for nonrepresented and represented employees. We will discuss legal authority, notice requirements, time limits, hearing procedures, and decision making.

TELECOMMUTING
The speaker will describe the U.C. Davis Telework Center Project; discuss and analyze telecommutable tasks; discuss typical concerns and problems that arise; share experiences of State departments; and share training opportunities and guidelines.

TOTAL QUALITY MANAGEMENT (TQM)
Introduction to the principles of TQM.

TOTAL QUALITY MANAGEMENT SHARE FAIR
Visit with representatives from various State departments implementing TQM. Each participating department will have information and a display of their TQM project and will be available to answer questions.

UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES
This workshop provides an overview of the Unfair Labor Practice (ULP) process with emphasis on Public Employee Relations Board's, Department of Personnel Administration's, and Departmental roles and responsibilities. Participants will also have an opportunity to discuss strategies and techniques to avoid ULPs.

UNIONS: HOW THEY WORK AND WHY
General topics to be discussed will include: How unions are organized, generally and specifically; how they appoint/elect job stewards; what they expect of job stewards; what do unions think of "cooperative labor relations" or "win-win" bargaining; the three most important objectives for a union; what management does that angers the union; how unions view the grievance procedure; and will include a question and answer period.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION
This workshop will focus on injury prevention measures departments may take to reduce workers' compensation costs and how departments and State Compensation Insurance Fund can effectively manage workers' compensation claims.

ADMINISTERING THE STATE’S BENEFITS
This workshop will focus on current issues in benefits administration and training.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA) - REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION
This workshop will address ways that State Departments can meet the mandates required of employers to ensure compliance of the ADA, Title I. Title I prohibits discrimination in employment against qualified individuals with disabilities because of their disability. The focus of this workshop will be to provide suggestions and techniques for responding to Reasonable Accommodation requests. Issues regarding "essential job duties," modified duty assignments and work schedules, job restructuring, job placement or reassignment, alternate job assignment, temporary assignment and special assignment will be discussed. Other issues such as how much medical substantiation, inquiry or documentation can be required, and what constitutes an undue hardship or direct threat for the employer will also be discussed.

ADVANCED ADVERSE ACTION - MINI SERIES
This workshop offers an intensive approach to preparing and presenting disciplinary actions.

PART I: EVERYTHING YOU WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT ADVERSE ACTION BEFORE THE ACTION IS APPEALED!! Don't miss out on this very informative workshop! This workshop will cover the role of a personnel office when a discipline problem arises. There will be a discussion on the concerns about adverse actions, what are some preventative methods (i.e., ways to main discipline), how to deal with informal corrective actions, and what to advise supervisors on the do's and don'ts associated with the process. This workshop will also cover how to prepare a formal adverse action, how to deal with the right to representation issues, and how to determine the appropriate penalty (based on the facts). The workshop will include a lecture, role playing, and a question-answer period. Come early - limited seating available.

PART II: If you are involved in adverse action hearings, you don't want to miss this workshop! At this workshop you will learn how to prepare for an adverse action hearing; how to interview witnesses; how to prepare witnesses; and what constitutes an effective stipulated agreement. The workshop will include a lecture and a question-answer period. Come early - limited seating available.

BASIC ADVERSE ACTION
What is an adverse action? What steps should supervisors take to avoid an adverse action situation? When an adverse action cannot be avoided, what basic steps should be followed when taking the action? What are the pitfalls of an adverse action? The three most important elements of a successful adverse action: DOCUMENTATION - DOCUMENTATION - DOCUMENTATION. Attend this informative workshop and learn more about the adverse action process in government.

DECENTRALIZED TESTING
One of the greatest challenges facing us all is that of meeting our customer's demands in the face of continuously shrinking resources. In our efforts to continuously improve our processes and services, we must utilize a cooperative approach and learn from each other to maximize our collective resources and creativity. This workshop will provide participants with information regarding innovative methods that are currently being used by some staff departments and some ideas that will soon become reality in others.

DEPARTMENT BARGAINING
Topics will include: scope of meeting and conferring under the Dills Act; what is good faith negotiations - how do you bargaining hard and maintain good faith; requirements to meet and confer under the various Entire Agreement clauses in our contracts; limitations on departmental authority; preparing for departmental bargaining; strategies for bargaining; how to close the agreement; framing the agreement - addendum to Memorandum of Understanding or policy; how not to get locked in (preserving options to change); grievability/arbitrability of local agreements; specific guidance in negotiating impact of various situations.

DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION (DPA) - EVERYTHING YOU EVER WANTED TO KNOW BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK
Have you ever thought why a policy or practice was established or why the State negotiated a certain contract clause? This is your opportunity to get the answer from the Director of DPA or a member of DPA's executive staff. There will be no boring speeches - this panel will simply attempt to answer your questions.

DRUG TESTING
This workshop will cover the state and federal requirements for drug testing. Topics will include how to designate classes for pre-employment testing and set up a State Personnel Board approved testing plan; how to designate positions for reasonable suspicion testing and set up a DPA approved testing plan; the collection, lab testing, and medical review requirements for actually testing for drugs and alcohol; and how to deal with applicants or employees who fail drug tests. Drug awareness training for all covered employees, drug testing training for supervisors, and chemical dependence rehabilitation options will also be covered. The proposed federal drug testing regulations applicable to commercial driver license holders will be reviewed in detail if they have been adopted by the time of the conference, otherwise they will receive just a cursory review.
